

“

Today the Soly™ solution allows to accept different types of containerization: bins or bags.

For example, Poste Italiane chose its configuration and in 2 days we were able to provide it with an operational system.

The system reads all the data on the label.

When we can not extract the sorting information from the bar codes, we read the address with the camera and extract the sorting information.

Today we have an operational Soly™ sorting system.

”

Emmanuel MIETTE,
System Engineering Director